MARYLAND MARINE/FATHER, KILLED IN AFGHANISTAN

Jimmy Malachowski grew up in Maryland and married his high school sweetheart Lindsay. They had two son's Vincent and Evan.

Malachowski, 25, of Westminster in Carroll County, was also a Marine who had served twice in Iraq, and was overseas again, this time in Afghanistan.

People called him Jimmy but he had another title: Staff Sgt. James M. Malachowski. He died Sunday March 20 while conducting combat operations in Helmand province, the Pentagon.

Before graduation from North Carroll High School in 2004, Jimmy went to a nearby Marine recruiting station to enlist. Even among Marines, Malachowski stood out. He had been an instructor in marksmanship and martial arts at the PISC.

Jimmy's mother, Alison, also served in the Marines. She had enlisted in 1976, and rose to sergeant before completing her service in 1980. His sister, Brandy, who became an Army Lieutenant, served in Iraq. At the ceremony when her officer's insignia was pinned on, Jimmy was the first member of the military to salute her.

Brandy, Jimmy's sister, was instrumental in providing the names and addresses of all the members in her unit to Jeff Merritt (Operation

We Care) so that care packages could be sent to them last Christmas and a care package was to be sent to Jimmy in May of this year.

Jimmy was assigned to the 2nd Battalion, 8th Marine Regiment, 2nd Marine Division, II Marine Expeditionary Force at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

ARE YOU A VIETNAM VETERAN

Vietnam Veteran, OV-1D Mohawk/UH-1H Pilot "War is an ugly thing, but not the ugliest of things. The decayed and degraded state of moral and patriotic feeling which thinks that nothing is worth war is much worse. The person who has nothing for which he is willing to fight, nothing which is more important than his own personal safety, is a miserable creature and has no chance of being free unless made and kept so by the exertions of better men than himself."

John Stuart Mill

In case you haven't been paying attention these past few decades after you returned from Vietnam, the clock has been ticking. The following are some statistics taken from a variety of sources that are at once depressing yet, in a larger sense, should give you a HUGE SENSE OF PRIDE.

"Of the 2,709,918 Americans who served in Vietnam, less than 850,000 are estimated to be alive today, with the youngest American Vietnam veteran's age approximated to be 54 years old." So, if you're alive and reading this, how does it feel to be among the last 1/3rd of all the U.S. vets who served in Vietnam? I don't know about you guys, but kinda gives me the chills, considering this is the kind of information I'm used to reading about WWII and Korean War vets.

So, in the last 14 years, we are dying too fast, only a few will survive to the end of 2016, if any. If true, 390 VN vets die a day. So, 2180 days from now, if you're a live Vietnam veteran, you will be lucky.

VETERAN AFFAIRS SERVICES (VAS)

An organization called Veterans Affairs Services (VAS) is providing benefit and general information on VA and gathering personal information on veterans. This organization is not affiliated with VA in anyway. Websites with the name "vaservices" immediately after the "www" ARE NOT part of the Department of Veterans Affairs, the U.S. Government agency. Do not go to them or if approached or called, do not offer them any information concerning yourself or data on other veterans. Keep in mind that the real VA website ends in “.gov” Be aware that the Department of Veterans Affairs does not randomly call veterans, nor does it ask veterans for information which it does not already have...like Social Security Numbers. In particular, if you have not dealt with the VA previously...and in person...and all of a sudden, you receive a call from someone saying they are with the VA or something similar sounding, hang up the phone. Also, do not respond to emails which suggest that they are from the VA. The VA never conducts official business nor asks for personal information by email. VAS may be gaining access to military personnel through their close resemblance to the VA name and seal. Our Legal Counsel has requested that we coordinate with DoD to inform military installations, particularly mobilization sites, of this group and their lack of affiliation or endorsement by VA to provide any services. In addition, GC requests that if you have any examples of VAS acts that violate chapter 59 of Title 38 United States Code, such as VAS employees assisting veterans in the preparation and presentation of claims for benefits, please pass any additional information to Michael G. Daugherty, Staff Attorney, Department of Veterans Affairs Office of General Counsel (022G2)810 Vermont Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20420.

Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day

Update 02: The U.S. Senate declared March 30th “Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day.” On March 30, 1973, U.S. troops withdrew from Vietnam under the terms of the Treaty of Paris. Senator Richard Burr (R-N.C.), Ranking Member of the Senate Committee on Veterans' Affairs, introduced the legislation saying, "Our soldiers served honorably and bravely in Vietnam. Unfortunately, they arrived home to a country in political turmoil, and never received the recognition they deserve. By setting March 30th aside as a day to focus on our Vietnam veterans, we can show our unified gratitude for their service and the sacrifices that these veterans made on our behalf." This is a long-overdue tribute to honor the men and women who served bravely during the Vietnam War. The US Armed Forces began serving in an advisory role to the South Vietnamese in 1961, and in 1965, ground combat troops were sent into Vietnam. More than 58,000 members of the United States Armed Forces lost their lives and more than 300,000 were wounded in Vietnam. This is the second consecutive year of the resolution.

Postal Rates Update 03: New first-class stamps will no longer have a denomination on their face. That means the new stamps you buy next year can be used to mail a letter or pay a bill no matter how many times the first-class rate goes up. Every first-class stamp will be a "Forever" stamp...those denomination-free stamps that first appeared in APR 07. The change is expected to debut with a new stamp issued on 22 JAN. We can see several pluses in this:

- * You won't have to mess with 1 or 2-cent stamps whenever rates go up so you can use up your non-Forever first-class stamps.
- * You'll no longer have to choose between the practical but boring Forever stamp and the more festive 44-cent stamps the post office sells.
- * You won't have to anticipate every postal rate increase and plan your stamp supply accordingly. A clever reporter picked up on the change before the official announcement date in JAN when the new first-class commemorative stamps for 2011 were officially unveiled. They are all labeled "Forever." The Postal Service says that 28 billion Forever Stamps have been sold since (they first appeared), generating $12.1 billion in total revenue. The stamps without denominations already account for 85 percent of its stamp program, the service says. The humble stamp is now one of the best investments around. We all know postage rates are going to keep going up. A lot. Over the past 10 years, first-class postage went up 29%, compared with a 0.1% gain for the Standard & Poor's 500 Index. Generous health care and retirement promises to postal workers, combined with weak revenue because fewer people use traditional mail, have created serious pressure to raise postage rates.
